

Personal Healing Sessions With Nejume

Her Masters taught her, now she can teach you. Nejume will guide you through the process of learning how to heal yourself and of ultimately becoming your own healer. By reminding you of how strong you are, transformation occurs, and your intuitive skills are heightened. Joy and laughter become food for the soul. Spiritual intimacy is born & the fear of being who you really are fades away. With each personal session, meditation quickly becomes an integral part of your life, much like brushing your teeth at the beginning of each day.

Her work as an Energy Healing Therapist has many purposes, but follows this singular principle, "We can help one another laugh, love, and enjoy all the wonders of this beautiful world. We can make a difference in the world, leaving it a better place than when we arrived. To do this, we all must contribute as much as we can, and laugh as much as possible, especially at ourselves. "
